

Valued Customers -

Lapp Tannehill has launched a new digital submission process for requesting compliance documentation:

<https://www.lapptannehill.com/about-us/environmental-compliance>

Once you click the weblink, simply fill in the required information and your request will be entered in queue.

Lapp Tannehill Policy:

- All compliance requests must funnel through the website
- Requests will be replied to with manufacturing partner statements, not customer attached forms
- Purchase history must be no more than 6 months old
- Customer portals (Assent, etc)
  - These requests will need to be quoted by your sales representative

At Lapp Tannehill, we believe that our responsibility extends beyond delivering exceptional products and services. We are deeply committed to preserving the environment and ensuring that our operations, and products, align with the highest standards of environmental compliance.

In recent years, the importance of environmental compliance has become increasingly clear. From reducing carbon footprints to managing waste responsibly, every action we take has a profound impact on the world we live in. We understand that as a valued customer, you share this concern for the environment, and we want to assure you that we are dedicated to upholding practices that support a sustainable future.

Here's how we are making a difference:

- Adherence to Regulations: We hold our manufacturing partners accountable for strictly following all relevant environmental regulations and standards to minimize our ecological footprint and ensure that our operations are conducted responsibly.
- Sustainable Practices: Our commitment includes using sustainable materials, optimizing energy use, and reducing waste. We continuously seek innovative ways to improve our environmental performance.
- Collaboration and Education: We actively collaborate with manufacturing partners to stay informed about best practices and emerging environmental compliance challenges.

We recognize that our environmental impact is a shared responsibility and that our customers play a crucial role in this journey. By choosing Lapp Tannehill, you are supporting a business that values and actively pursues environmental excellence.

We appreciate your continued trust and partnership. Together, we can contribute to a healthier planet for future generations. If you have any questions about our environmental policies or practices, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
